

Appendix B. Professional background and aspirations of admitted CCT applicants, 2003-2010

K-12 teaching: [7]

- 3rd grade teacher in Framingham
- I am a high school biology and environmental science teacher in Fishers, IN.
- Assists in Benjamin Franklin Charter School. Yoga teacher
- I have worked in independent schools since 1990, with broad and varied experience: dorm parent, coach, advisor, fundraising, admissions, marketing, publications, special events.
- Teacher and administrator of English teaching in China.
- I have a master's in education from Lesley University but would like to further my education.

Higher Ed administration: [5]

- Records Administrator, Grad & Cont. Ed at Mass Art. Interested in continuing in Higher Ed Admin.
- Assistant Director of Financial Aid Services at the University of Massachusetts Boston
- Massasoit Community College, Director of Development and Alumni Relations
- Associate Director, UMASS Boston Office Of Undergraduate Admissions
- Associate Dean for Learning Resources, Cape Cod Community College

Community/Youth/Human Service Programs: [5]

- Regional Director, Women in Community Service, Boston Youth Program, www.wics.org
- UMB Service-Learning/Civic Engagement Coordinator
- Currently working as the coordinator in a Kindergarten Aftercare Program in Newton
- Working in the human services field for 20 years in various capacities from inclusion facilitator to intensive care provider for trauma and abuse victims
- Leads Students Civil Rights Project for Governor's Task Force on hate crimes. <http://stopthehate.org>

Health professions: [4]

- Dental hygienist for 26 years who has been teaching dental hygiene at Middlesex Community College for most of these years [also Community college teaching]
- Nurse. Article on stress and joy published in Nursing Spectrum.
- Assistant nurse manager
- I have served as a pain therapist and advocate for the healing of women in pain. During the last four years, I have taught writing and Basic Composition at Felican College and the College of St. Elizabeth.[also Community College teaching]

Science/Technology/Business: [4]

- I work at Genzyme, a biotechnology company, and I wish to pursue a master's degree that can help me grow in my position. I am currently working in program management. I would like a degree that helps me make better business decisions with regards to science, clinical trials, law, and finance.

- I am the Quality Assurance Manager for a busy Transfusion Medicine Service, which is comprised of the Blood Donor Center and the Blood Bank Laboratory
- General French/Israeli business product (global) designer that have graduated from the School of Industrial Design of Carleton University, Ontario, Canada in 1994
- Currently enrolled in MA of Organizational Change at Hawai'i Pacific University, wants to move back to NE.

Gifted and talented/Special Ed: [3]

- Master's degree in Gifted Education and Talent Development; Serve on the board of director's for the Massachusetts Association for Gifted Education
- Dept. of Ed. Education Specialist in Malden
- Interested in multiple supports (classroom, schools, community) for education of children with learning disabilities

Music , Arts, & Museum Ed: [3]

- Visual artist, musician, and music business entrepreneur, I have come to fully realize my desire to fuse my creativity with my blossoming leadership skills in order to make a contribution of the arts to society; President ISOBEL MUSIC SOCIETY; <http://www.isobelmusicsociety.net>, and FRESH I DESIGN <http://www.freshidesign.com>
- I focus mostly on music and cultural studies. I am a musician - composer, performer, scholar, teacher, explorer.
- Interested in museum education, may use CCT to clarify her goals.

Community College Teaching/Librarian: [3] [plus 3 others who also do college teaching]

- As a community college librarian, I have an enduring interest in critical thinking as it applies to library research and to research in general.
- Masters in English, UMB 2007; Currently teach English Comp 1 & 2, Basic Writing and Reading (community college)
- Assistant professor at Framingham State College in the Fashion Design and Retailing Dept.

Government: [2]

- Inspections & Investigations Branch, Career Coast Guard officer with 20+ years of government service, primarily in the field of commercial maritime safety.
- Department of Veterans Affairs, Providence, RI

Journalism: [1]

- Reporter in print, radio & TV. Has taught Broadcast Journalism at Suffolk and Emerson. [also College teaching]

Other: [3]

- Buddhist Studies; B.A degree in from Vietnam Institute of Advanced Buddhist Studies, Vietnam in 1997 and M.A degree from Delhi University, India in 1999.

- Graduated from CPCS at UMB spring '02. Fall '02 took courses at the Center for Women in Politics and Public Policy.
- Masters student in UMB Instructional Design program